

Westminster
School

You are invited to attend an evening with

Mem Fox

Australia's renowned children's author

Mem will be sharing her insights about literacy and the importance of reading to children, especially in their first five years of life.

This evening has been designed for parents only.

Wednesday 19 February 2020

7.00 - 8.30pm

Drama Theatre, Michael Murray Centre for Performing Arts

Book for this free event at: trybooking.com/BHXGN

'The remarkable results of reading to your child - why it changes everything for the better, forever, even for scientists.'

Westminster School is proud to have Mem Fox as a passionate member and grandparent in our School community.

In 1983, Mem became Australia's best-selling writer. Possum Magic, her first book, is still available in hardback after 36 years and has become a beacon of children's literature for millions of Australian families. She has written over 40 children's books and several non-fiction books for adults. Her books have been translated into twenty-one languages, and many of them have been international best sellers.

Mem is a retired Associate Professor of Literacy Studies from Flinders University, South Australia, where she taught teachers for 24 years. She has received many civic honours and awards, and three honorary doctorates.

